

Our Social is Special..

By

Sayar Ko Ko Lwin

The Kachin People

The Kachin people live in the north of Myanmar. They wear colourful clothes. They celebrate the Manaw Festival with dancing. They live near big mountains. I like their music.

The Shan People

The Shan people live in Shan State. They grow rice and tea. Their traditional dress is beautiful. They have fun water festivals. I like Shan noodles!

The Kayin People

The Kayin people live in the east. They play bamboo drums. Their clothes have pretty patterns. They celebrate the Kayin New Year with dancing.

The Chin People

The Chin people live in the west. They have many different languages. Their women wear face tattoos. They live in the hills. I think they are strong.

The Mon People

The Mon people live in the south. They were the first to bring Buddhism to Myanmar. They make golden pagodas. I like Mon traditional dances.

The Burma People

The Burma are the biggest group in Myanmar. They wear longyi. They celebrate Thingyan Water Festival. I speak the Burma Language.

The Rakhine People

The Rakhine people live near the sea. They eat delicious fish curry. They have a special boat racing festival. Their beaches are very beautiful.

The Karenni People

The Karenni people live in Karenni State. The women wear brass rings on their necks. They have a special pole-climbing festival. Their land has many trees.

The Naga People

The Naga people live near India. They wear feathers and beads. They are good hunters. They have a big festival called Naga New Year.

The Pa-Oh People

The Pa-Oh people live in Shan State and Karen State. They wear black clothes and colourful turbans. They grow oranges and tea. Their festival has hot air balloons. I like their traditional dances!

The Wa People

The Wa people live near the China border. They have strong traditions. The women wear silver neck rings. They celebrate by dancing with drums. Their villages are in the mountains.

The Danu People

The Danu people live around Inle Lake. They are good farmers. They grow tomatoes and flowers. I like seeing their colourful gardens!

The Akha People

The Akha people live in eastern Myanmar. Their hats have silver coins and beads. They make beautiful handicrafts. They have a special Swing Festival. Their clothes are very colorful!

The Lahu People

The Lahu people are good hunters. They live in the hills. The women wear bright skirts. They play bamboo instruments. Their New Year festival is very fun!

The Palaung People

The Palaung people grow tea in the mountains. Their women wear red skirts. They make special tea leaf salad. I like their bamboo houses on stilts!

The Kokang People

The Kokang people live near China. They speak Chinese and Myanmar language. They celebrate Chinese New Year. Their food is delicious!

The Mro People

The Mro people live in Chin State. They make beautiful bamboo crafts. The women wear beads in their hair. They have special face paintings.

The Rawang People

The Rawang people live in the far north. They build wooden bridges over rivers. Their traditional clothes have geometric patterns. They are good at making baskets!

The Ta'ang People

The Ta'ang people are also called Palaung. They grow the best tea leaves. Their women wear silver belts. They have a special umbrella dance!

The Intha People

The Intha people live on Inle Lake. They row boats with their legs! They grow food on floating gardens. Their fishermen are very clever.

The Lisu People

The Lisu people wear the most colorful clothes! They live in the mountains. Their women's dresses have many rainbow stripes. They play happy music!

The Padaung People

The Padaung women wear brass rings on their necks. They look like long-necked giraffes! They live in Kayah State. Their villages have beautiful handicrafts. Children help make traditional clothes.

The Zomi People

Zomi people live near India border. They are great farmers. Their festivals include hornbill dances. Children wear colorful beads. They speak many different languages!

All Myanmar People

Myanmar has many ethnic groups. They speak different languages. They wear different clothes. But we all live together. We are friends. So I love my friends!

The end.

This book is created for educational purpose only aim at kids who is above 5 years old

by Ko Ko Lwin.

Just follow for more books