The sun has set.
The sky is black and yet...

The cat, dog, and rat look up at the big night sky.

A big light is up high.
It is the moon in the sky!

The rat points up.
"It looks like a big ball!"

The dog jumps up.
"Can we go to the moon?"

The cat thinks a lot.
"How can we get up there?"

They climb a tall tree.
"Is the moon near the top?"

They get to the top.
But the moon is still far up.

The rat gets a book.
"Let us read and look."

The book has a plan.
To make a long tube can help.

They roll up a big sheet.
They make a long tube.

They roll up a big sheet.
They make a long tube.

They see craters and hills.
It gives them big thrills!

They sit on the rug.
And give each pal a hug.

They dream of the moon.
They will go there soon!
The End...
